The MESS network is excited to announce its second annual conference! After the great success of our inaugural meeting in 2024, we want to continue bringing together scholars from political science, sociology, economics, and all neighboring social sciences to foster academic collaboration and exchange in the Madrid area. We are looking forward to two days filled with lively discussions and plenty of networking opportunities for everyone.

Call for Submissions

We welcome full papers and ongoing projects that reflect innovative research in the social sciences. Researchers based outside of Madrid are also warmly welcome to apply. Participants also have the opportunity to present posters on ongoing projects or engage as discussants. We strongly encourage PhD students located in Madrid to apply as well!

- Abstract Submission: Please submit your abstracts online via: <https://forms.gle/usBWvFrXeVbKMuPj7>
- Submission Deadline: 11th July 2025.

Acceptance decisions will be communicated in early September.
