CALL FOR PAPERS

Inaugural Workshop of the Madrid Empirical Social Sciences Network (MESS)

Date:

October 18-19, 2024

Location:

UC3M Puerta de Toledo
Campus, Madrid

Keynote Speaker:

Prof. Niloufer A. Siddiqui
(SUNY Albany)

The MESS network is excited to announce its inaugural workshop. This event aims to bring together scholars from all social science disciplines to foster academic synergies and collaborative efforts in the Madrid area. It will offer a platform for lively discussions and networking in a supportive environment.

Call for Submissions

We welcome full papers and ongoing projects that reflect innovative research in the social sciences. Participants also have the opportunity to present posters on ongoing projects or engage as discussants. We strongly encourage PhD students located in Madrid to apply as well!

- Abstract Submission: Please submit your abstracts via email to: madridempiricalsocialsciences@gmail.com
- Submission Deadline: 30th July 2024.

Indicate in your email whether your submission should be considered for a presentation or as a poster. Please also e-mail us whether you would like to contribute as a discussant (which does not require an abstract submission).

Acceptance decisions will be communicated in late August.

Networking Opportunities

An informal reception with drinks and snacks will take place in the early evening, fostering further discussion and networking among the community.
